Chuck Viane

Chuck Viane began his career in the film industry in 1973 as a film buyer in Chicago. He quickly moved up the ranks of exhibition with General Cinema Theatre Corp. before moving to the distribution side in 1985 when he joined the Boston Branch of Disney as VP and Assistant General Sales Manager. Two years later, Chuck and his wife Shar relocated to California where his 26 year tenure with Walt Disney Studios Motion Pictures would earn Viane his reputation as one of the most deeply respected individuals in the film industry. Under Viane's leadership, first as Senior VP and General Sales Manager in 1995, then as President of Distribution in 1999, Disney has celebrated some of the most prestigious milestones in motion picture history. In 1999, Disney made industry history and became the first distributor to have two films join the exclusive $200 million club in the same year. Then in 2003, Disney became the first distributor to have two films gross over $300 million in the same year. With Chuck Viane at the domestic distribution helm, Walt Disney Studios Motion Pictures hit the billion-dollar plateau thirteen times. Most recently, when Viane was named President of Global Distribution, Disney saw three releases cross the $1 billion mark ("Toy Story 3" $1.063B, "Alice in Wonderland" $1.023B, and "Pirates of the Caribbean: On Stranger Tides" $1B+).

While Viane was busy breaking records at work, he still found time to become actively involved with the industry's philanthropic arms. He served as President and Chairman of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation and is on the Advisory Council of Variety the Children's Charity of Southern California. Chuck Viane's professional and philanthropic accomplishments during his distinguished career have enriched the film community in countless ways. However, no production has brought him more joy than his family. Chuck and Sherry have three children and seven grandchildren.

For his exceptional devotion to charitable, humanitarian and philanthropic pursuits, as well as his professional accomplishments and distinguished position in the motion picture community, Variety the Children's Charity of Southern California is proud to honor Chuck Viane with the 2011 Lifetime Achievement Award.

Dear Chuck:

Congratulations on receiving Variety's highest honor, the Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Lifetime Achievement award is a symbol of distinguished professional accomplishments and leadership efforts, by a member of the motion picture community, for their support of humanitarian causes and philanthropic pursuits. By accepting this honor, you will have helped raise money to complete the rebuilding of the Variety's Boys and Girls Club, in Boyle Heights. We are thrilled that this journal will coincide with the opening of the brand new Variety Boys and Girls Club.

This year's award is particularly auspicious as 2011 marks the 70th anniversary of the founding of Variety of Southern California, an organization long considered the "Heart of Show Business." This momentous year of accomplishments seems to be the perfect time to honor a member of our family, such as yourself, for your deep commitment to community and charitable organizations. You are a model for all of us in the industry.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks and admiration for your remarkable career.

Sincerely,

RICHARD COOK

Dear Chuck,

This is the easiest letter I have ever written. To talk about one of your best friends receiving Variety's Lifetime Achievement Award is such great fun.

It's just too simple to say that no one deserves it more than you. Everyone says that about every honor that is given. In most circumstances it's not true! There is always someone else that is more deserving. Not now! The folks at Variety, in their wisdom, have selected the very best to be this year's honoree...you! You are simply the best.

I could recount all of your professional accomplishments... the most $100 million dollar movies, the box office awards, the number of movies in the top 10 of all time, your innovative leadership in digital and 3D, the loyal team you lead during your tenure as head of distribution at Disney; but, that is only part of why you are being honored.

Chuck, you are a rarity, a man who has climbed the tallest mountains to reach the highest stations in our industry while at the same time keeping intact your innate sense of decency, honesty and an ongoing commitment to helping those in need. You always do what you know to be right...every time... without hesitation.

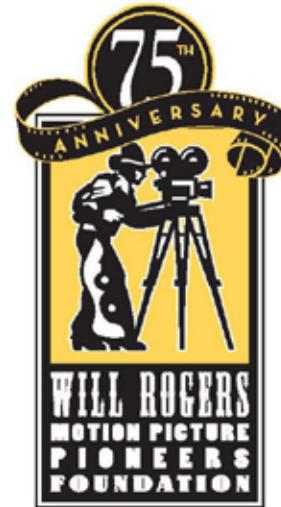

For as long as we have known each other, you have never changed. Well, maybe a little less hair and a little more weight! But, in the things that matter, your personal gauge of honor, loyalty, and integrity have never wavered. Your family has always been #1 with you and rightly so. They have made you proud.

So, Chuck...thank you for being you. It is only fitting that you receive all of these accolades from your peers. YOU deserve it all... and more!

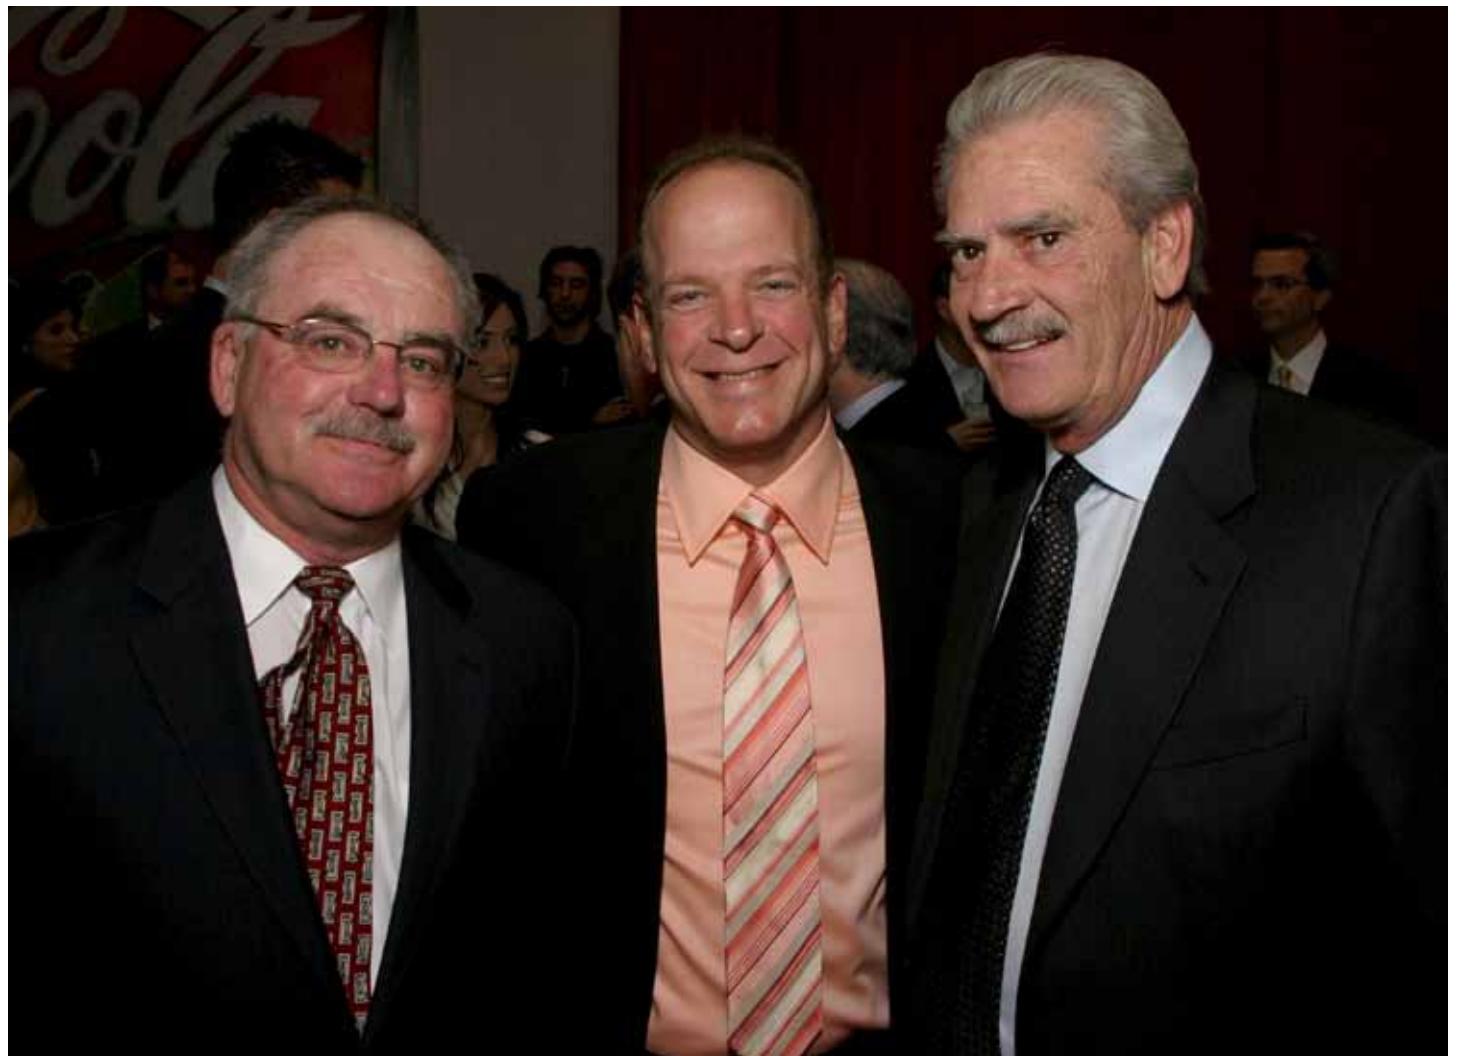

Congratulations from your #1 fan,

Chuck,

Recently, you have heard me confess that you were my mentor; however, you probably don't ever recall signing-up for the job. Before we met many years back, I had heard about the smart good guy at Disney – and boy was that description accurate.

Thank you for being a friend and a mentor, I truly don't believe I could have achieved some of the success I have had professionally or personally without your guidance. Needless to say, thanks to your 'Pioneering' leadership, our charity is in a solid position to meet the demands of the future.

Congratulations on your well-deserved honor.

CHRIS S. LEROY

Dear Chuck,

Congratulations on being honored with the 2011 Lifetime Achievement Award from Variety – The Children's Charity.

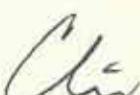

In trying to put some perspective on how deserving you are, I found this definition of Achievement: Something accomplished, especially by superior ability, special efforts or great courage.

I now know that Chuck Viane defines achievement!

I admire you for your accomplishments in business, your devotion as a husband, father and grandfather, as well as your unselfish and sincere humanitarian efforts on behalf of children everywhere.

I am honored to know you, grateful for your inspiration and, most importantly, thankful for your friendship.

Congratulations,

Chris LeRoy

2011 Lifetime Achievement Award Honoree
Variety Children Charities of Southern CA.

Dear Chuck:

Congratulations on receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award. Chuck, no one is more deserving of this award than you.

You have spent your entire life in the industry, with only two companies and that is an achievement in itself. But it is the lives that you have changed by mentoring, listening, encouraging and transforming, that is your real achievement.

Whenever you were called upon by Variety or Will Rogers for any endeavor, you always were available. And if a young person approached you for advice on getting into the Motion Picture business you never hesitated to make time for that individual, always supporting and encouraging.

Besides all you have done for the film industry and its charities your loving, caring family says volumes for the kind and giving character you possess.

It is a great honor for me to be your friend. Again, congratulations and Godspeed to you and your family.

Dear Chuck:

Congratulations on receiving the Variety Lifetime Achievement Award. I don't think Variety could have chosen a better person than you to bestow this honor upon. I have worked side by side with you and we have taken many trips to raise money for charity over the years. You never hesitate or waver when called on. You have given your time and money when asked and are a true philanthropist. You have lead by example and left a legacy to be admired. I am proud to call you a colleague and even more proud to count you among my friends.

As I write, I realize that you no longer have to get up at 5:00AM on the weekends to look at numbers and I am starting to get jealous. What are you doing with all of that free time? I am guessing your golf game is better than ever which really isn't saying that much. Seriously, Chuck, we have worked together in some way, shape, or form for over 30 years and I have enjoyed every one of them. Congratulations on a well deserved honor, my friend!

All my best,

Erik

Dear Chuck,

I can't think of anyone more deserving to receive the 2011 Lifetime Achievement Award from Variety. Recognizing your philanthropic endeavors throughout your career has been long overdue.

Dear Chuck,

It's hard to believe I am sitting down to write to you about our Golden Years. Wasn't it just yesterday that the Amtrak train I boarded in Trenton at 6:50 a.m. was making its first stop in Princeton Junction to pick you up on our way to New York? Wasn't it yesterday that we were heading to Boston for the monthly meeting? Wasn't it yesterday when our biggest problem was wondering if we'd overbid for a movie in Boston? Wasn't it yesterday that you, Shar, Madeleine and I were taking the kids to the Ground Round, that restaurant in New Jersey with the nutshells on the floor. Wasn't it yesterday that our kids were kids?? Yesterday, all our troubles seemed so far away, boy, do I believe in yesterday.

Chuck, on behalf of the entire Sherak family, congratulations on this honor you are receiving from Variety's Children's Charity and on your Golden Years. May health and happiness follow you wherever you go.

Love,

Tom

Dear Chuck,

Congratulations on receiving the 2011 Variety Lifetime Achievement Award. In this case, well deserved is an understatement. Chuck, your retirement from Disney has left a void in this industry that won't soon be filled.

As I reflect on our friendship over the years going back to your General Cinema Chicago days, (1980's) the one thing that truly stands out to me is your value system by which you live and operate. Intelligent, honorable and decent immediately come to mind.

Your charitable efforts are second to none and Variety Club has made the perfect choice for this honor.

Again, congratulations Chuck.

It is with great pleasure that I join with our industry in honoring you with this Lifetime Achievement Award.

While I won't admit how many years our relationship has survived, I will share that from the very beginning of our bond, you "honored" me with tremendous respect and friendship. These values will always remind me of what a truly spectacular person and friend you are.

As a past recipient of this prestigious award, I have personal knowledge of just how meaningful it is to be committed to Variety and the kids who benefit from this fantastic effort. You are the quintessential choice as an honoree as you exemplify the generosity, devotion and commitment which the world surely needs.

9/22/11

In writing to you I was thinking about how long we have been friends.... and it has to be over 30 years. Starting with hanging out together at those really exciting General Cinema meetings, where we had to listen to people talk about how many rolls of toilet paper they should put in each restroom, to you moving on to Disney where you were immediately a rising star. I have to admit it was a little strange dealing with you as a distributor since we had been partners at GCC for so many years.

A few years later I moved to California and joined the distribution ranks as your competitor. You could not have been more gracious in welcoming Jan and I, and is something we will never forget. While we were competitors the last 16 years, our friendship never waivered, and I cherish our relationship today as much as ever.

While it has been some time since you made the decision to slow down, smell the roses, play golf, travel and most importantly spend time with the family, it is still a shock to most of us. I never thought you would beat me in making that decision... you did though... but not by long. I'm Looking forward to hanging out and spending more time with you.

Healthcare

Variety is dedicated to helping special needs children throughout Southern California by funding a wide range of medical and therapeutic organizations that provide exceptional care to kids who need it most.

We purchase neonatal intensive care equipment for hospitals in low-income neighborhoods. We fund surgery weekends which transform the lives of disadvantaged children by providing reconstructive surgery for physical deformities.

Other grants directed at improving the physical and mental well-being of children include: after school programs for kids in foster care, equestrian therapy, camps for kids affected by Cancer, HIV and Heart Disease, therapy for children with autism, children afflicted with brain injuries, and programs and shelter for homeless teens.

Education

Variety of Southern California, Tent 25, supports the Los Angeles Community with a rewarding Scholarship Program that gives its youth an opportunity to expand their knowledge base, enabling them to strive for their dream. The Scholarship Program has awarded over $1.3 million to over 500 recipients since the inception of the program.

All of the scholarship recipients are at-risk youth from the greater Los Angeles area –many from the Variety Boys and Girls Club of Boyle Heights, who have worked hard to better their lives through education. Among its graduates are the Mayor of Los Angeles, doctors, lawyers, teachers and other community leaders.

Mobility

Bike rides, trips to the park, playing with other kids –these are all staples of childhood that children with disabilities want to experience. But for many families, the medical equipment necessary to give their kids the mobility they desire is often too expensive and almost never covered by insurance.

The Variety Mobility Program helps give deserving kids confidence, freedom, independence and the chance to simply join in the activities of other kids, by providing funding for walkers, wheelchairs, specially-designed adaptive bikes, therapeutic strollers, adaptive seating, and other devices.
