Dear Friends,

I am very pleased to congratulate Amy Miles on her selection as this year's recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award for Variety Children's Charity of Southern California. Amy is a leader in the global entertainment industry, and she is also a leader in charitable work to help those most in need.

As CEO and Chair of the Board of Regal Entertainment Group, Amy has been a pioneer in the industry, adapting to changing technology and audience demands. She is also a role model for executive women, ranking #44 in the Women in Entertainment Power 100 list.

As Mayor of Regal's home city, I can attest to Regal's strong corporate citizenship. They are a wonderful, reliable partner in supporting local charities and civic events. Amy has also shown her personal commitment to charity through her work with Variety of East Tennessee, the Regal Foundation and the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley.

It is fitting that she is being recognized by Variety of Southern California, which has for so many decades provided life-saving and life-changing support to children in need. From healthcare to education to arts opportunities, Variety helps fund programs that make immediate and lasting differences in young people's lives.

So congratulations again to Amy Miles, and thanks to Variety for all you do!

Sincerely,

Madeline Rogero
Mayor

Children battling illness need relief from the pain and chaos of treatments. Variety supports camps and programs for kids affected by HIV/AIDS, Cancer, and other life threatening illness.

1 in 5 children in Los Angeles go to bed hungry every night. Variety supports organizations which provide safety, help, and hope to children who are victims of abuse, neglect, and homelessness.
