Dear Bruce:

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on receiving our coveted Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Lifetime Achievement award is given to a distinguished member of the motion picture community for both their professional accomplishments and leadership efforts in support of humanitarian causes and philanthropic pursuits. By accepting this honor, you will have helped raise money that will benefit special needs children throughout Southern California.

It is altogether fitting and proper that the organization long considered the "Heart of Show Business" honors an industry leader, who himself, has been described as the "Heart of Show Business" for his deep commitment to community and charitable organizations. You are a model for all of us in the industry.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks and admiration for your remarkable career.

Sincerely,

Dear Bruce,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Variety – The Children's Charity of Southern California, our members and the children we serve, congratulations on receiving our 2010 Lifetime Achievement Award.

To do your job so well as to receive the respect of your bosses is a goal. To do your job so well as to receive the respect of your peers is a milestone. Dear Mr. Snyder,

On behalf of the City of Los Angeles, it is my sincere pleasure to congratulate you on receiving the 2010 Lifetime Achievement Award from Variety – The Children's Charity of Southern California.

Throughout your illustrious career, you have demonstrated your ability to excel in a variety of endeavors. Your tenacity to succeed is remarkable, and I'd like to commend you on your great success as President of Domestic Distribution.

With the same passion that distinguished you professionally, you have devoted your energy to charity and shown yourself to be a true champion of humanitarian causes – serving on the Board of Directors for such charities as The Will Roger Motion Picture Pioneer Foundation and Variety Children's Charity. Thank you for your service.

I am proud to join in honoring you, your career and your contribution to Variety's legacy of caring for children.

Very truly yours,

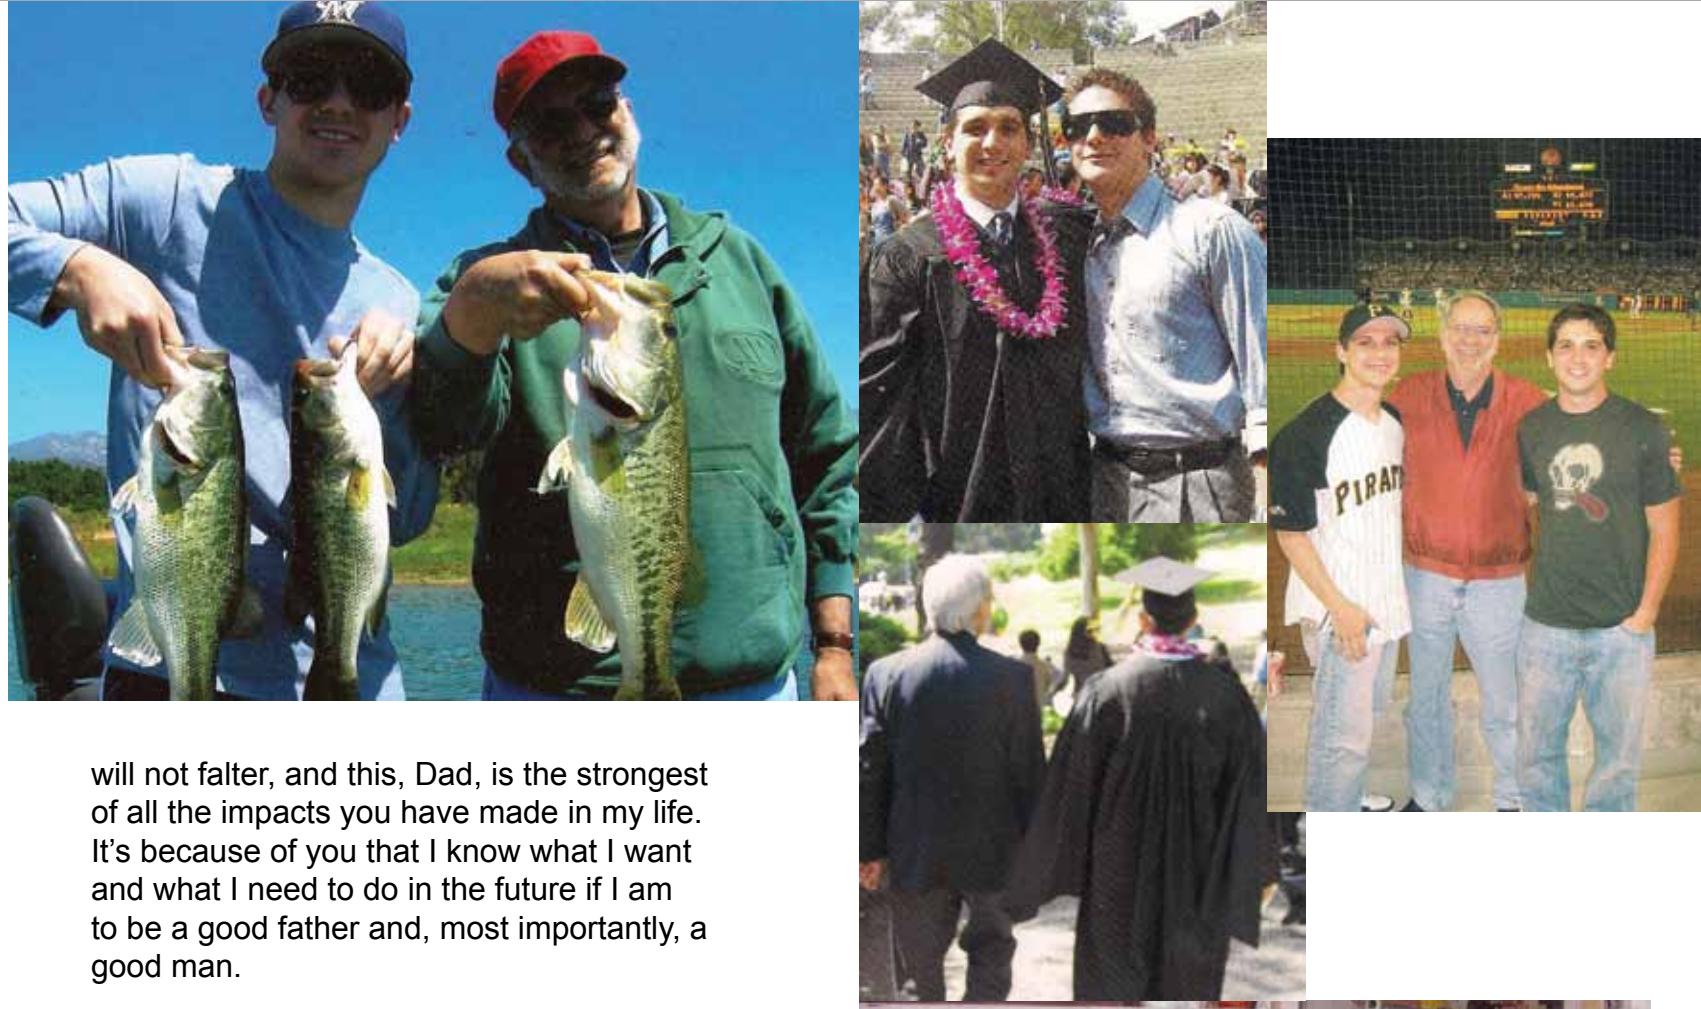

ANTONIO R. VILLARAIGOSA
Mayor

Dad,

From my childhood up until now I often imitate and emulate what I have observed from you; your strongest impact comes not just as a professional role model, but as a Dad. From peeking over your shoulder while you worked when I was a kid, to listening intently when you spoke about business, trying to soak in what I could when I was a teenager, to now coming to you for guidance and career advice, you have always been my professional role model.

You are there to guide me in the right direction, you have taught me accountability by letting me make my own mistakes and learn from them, while never once letting me fall. You go above and beyond to do things and go places that will make me, Jon, and Mom happy. From you I have learned the valuable lesson of never taking loved ones for granted, and to cherish every chance you get to put a smile on their faces.

Most importantly, you have been the rock through the hardest times. You are the one who we can lean on, and who we all know will not falter, and this, Dad, is the strongest of all the impacts you have made in my life. It's because of you that I know what I want and what I need to do in the future if I am to be a good father and, most importantly, a good man.

I am still only at the beginning of my journey, but from the time I have spent with you I already feel that I have a lifetime's worth of knowledge. I can only hope to continue learning by following in your footsteps and, hopefully, one day I will be able to blaze a trail of my own as brilliantly as you have. Thank you, Dad, for making us a family. Congratulations on receiving Variety's 2010 Lifetime Achievement Award.

I love you,
Evan

Pops,

I don't really know how to start this or, for that matter, what I even want or am supposed to write. I guess "congratulations" is as good a commencement as any, but "thank you" may be a bit more appropriate.

Thank you for simply always being there and never letting life drift into a dull moment. Whether it has been academics, athletics or irrational decisions that resulted in very rational consequences... you have never left my side. No words or actions can ever convey the amount of security and confidence which that has given me. I have no doubt that I would not be who I am or where I am today without your influence and guidance in my life. You are and always have been the quintessential father and I cannot tell how lucky I am to have you in my life. You are a seemingly endless source of love and laughter. My only real regret is that you were not in my life sooner. I love you pops and am so proud to be your son. There is no individual on this planet that deserves more awards and accolades than you.

So congratulations and thank you. Thank you for being my dad, thank you for being my role model and above all else... thank you for being my best friend.

I love you,
Jon

Once upon a time a man met a woman:

He asked her to dine. She immediately replied "yes"
Not sure of a restaurant, he inquired how she would like to dress
She pondered for a moment, really just a second in time
"I'm 43, divorced, two kids... a white wedding gown would be devine!"

And so it began...

Southern California

Variety –the Children's Charity of Southern California, founded in 1941, is made up of men and women primarily in the entertainment industry who raise the much-needed funds to provide lifesaving support for disabled, abused, physically-challenged and underprivileged children in the Southern California community.

We are proud that 88 cents of every dollar raised from our major fundraisers goes directly to the children we serve. The proceeds raised from this tribute journal will support programs in the areas of Education, Health Care, and Mobility, serving children in need across Southern California.

Last year alone, Variety the Children's Charity of Southern California provided over half a million dollars in grants in the fields of health care, mobility, and education, to organizations and individuals.

As we celebrate our 70th anniversary, with your help, we will continue Variety's mission to make a difference in the lives of our special needs children in Southern California.

Healthcare

Arriving unexpectedly at only 26 weeks, Saory was a tiny little girl; she weighed 1 lb., 10 oz. and had a hole in her heart. For the first few months of her life, baby Saory's home was the St. Francis Medical Center neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) in a Giraffe Infant Warmer, which was purchased by Variety of Southern California. The warmer provided her with a protected, controlled environment that allowed her to grow and gain strength. She has received exceptional medical care and the hole in her heart has closed. She was able to get stronger everyday and her mother was able to hold Saory in her arms and take her home. Thanks to the generosity of Variety's donors, "St. Francis Medical Center treated 732 newborns in its neonatal intensive care unit last year," stated Gerald Kozai, President/CEO of St. Francis Medical Center. "Through this grant and the ongoing support we receive from Variety –The Children's Charity of Southern California, we are able to couple advanced neonatal equipment and technology with dedicated, compassionate care from our team of doctors and nurses to help ensure that the tiniest life entrusted to our care, receives the best start in for a full and healthy future."

Mobility

Bike rides, trips to the park, playing with other kids –these are all staples of childhood that children with disabilities want to experience. But for many families, the medical equipment necessary to give their kids the mobility they desire is often too expensive and almost never covered by insurance.

The Variety Mobility Program helps gives deserving kids confidence, freedom, independence and the chance to simply join in the activities of other kids, by providing funding for walkers, wheelchairs, specially-designed adaptive bikes, therapeutic strollers, adaptive seating, and other devices .
