Richie used to pick Mary up in this car...

Dear Richie,

When thinking back to our college years, I can remember that day in January when we first met. As we were boarding the bus for a school sponsored trip, a young gentleman took hold of my luggage and carried it onto the bus. I never imagined that I would be spending the rest of my life with that young man. Today, you are still that same fun loving gentleman that I met in college.

Throughout our years together we've had many memories which we cherish and shared both joys of happiness and shed tears of sorrow. We have had our good times and challenging ones and through it all you have been our tower of strength. Family has always come first and as a Husband, Father and Poppa to Deacon and Matteo, you have been supportive, loving, caring and dependable. You are our Rock!

When raising our girls, you instilled in them the same fine qualities that you possess. The litany of cards and letters that each of the girls has given to you over the years is a testament to the type of person you are. "Best Dad a girl could have", "Proud to be your daughter", "Appreciate all you do for us", "Lucky to be half as successful as you are", "You sacrifice so much for your children", "Best role model a daughter could ever ask for", and finally a quote from Kris: "Very lucky to have you as my POPS".

It comes as no surprise that you are the recipient of the 2016 Variety Lifetime Achievement Award for your professional accomplishments and generous humanitarian work. Commitment, dedication and integrity are traits that are apparent in the way you conduct yourself with your family, friends, profession and community. Throughout your 45 years in the film industry, your inspiration, guidance and leadership have influenced many. The qualities of honesty, kindness, generosity, sincerity and selflessness come to mind when someone hears the name "Richie Fay". You are respected & loved by all and considered a friend by many.

I, along with Mary Beth, Jeff, Deacon, and Matteo, congratulate you on receiving this well-deserved honor. We are all proud of you and your accomplishments. Somewhere Kristen is looking down with a big smile saying "Pappafritas, I love you more than life".

Thank you for making our lives complete!

Mary

Fiesta Latkes

These fiesta latkes, are spicy, delicious and colorfully festive. You can accompany them with that good old sour cream and applesauce, or you can do what we did, by accompanying them with a sweet and spicy Jalapeño jelly, or a schmear of refried beans!

INGREDIENTS

3 Russet potatoes peeled and quartered
1 carrot peeled
1 zucchini
1 onion peeled and quartered
1 Serrano chilli pepper finely minced
1 garlic clove mashed
1/3 cup parsley
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup corn flour - Masa Harina (all-purpose flour or matzoh meal are o.k. too)
1 teaspoon black pepper
2 eggs
1 tablespoon lime juice
1/3 cup fresh cilantro leaves (optional)
Canola or olive oil as needed for frying
the latkes

DIRECTIONS

Blanche the potatoes and the carrot in boiling water for three minutes, remove from water and allow them to cool. Once cool, shred them in a food processor along with the zucchini and onion. Transfer mixture to a medium-sized mixing bowl.

Add the rest of the ingredients, mix well and allow the mixture to sit for 5 minutes.

Pour about 1/4 cup of oil into a frying pan and heat well. Take about 1/4 cup measurements of mixture and place one by one in the hot oil, flattening out each latke with the back of a spatula. It will take about 5 minutes for the latkes to brown, then turn them over and brown them on the opposite side. As each latke is ready remove it to a baking pan lined with paper towels to absorb excess oil.

Serve the latkes while still warm. They may be accompanied by applesauce and or sour cream. We accompanied them with Jalapeño jelly from the farmer's market and Crema Mexicana, a delicious Mexican style cream.

This recipe makes about 2 dozen latkes.

Variety's Health Care Program supports organizations that provide safety, help and hope to children who are victims of abuse, neglect and homelessness. Variety sends kids who are battling life-threatening illnesses to summer camp and provides medical care, therapy, and early intervention programs for kids with disabilities.

The little girl came in quiet and shy...
She wanted to draw...a paper was given.
She drew a heart, cut it out, then tore it into little pieces.

"This is how I feel. My heart is broken."

She gave the pieces to her therapist....Time passed and on her last day the little girl asked for her heart. She taped the pieces together very carefully and said,

"My heart was broken and you mended it."

Variety provided the funding to a Family Center for neglected and abused children when, due to California Budget cuts, it closed its doors for Saturday programs. Young Oscar and Gina would spend weekend mornings sitting around the house watching television or getting into trouble. Since joining the reinstated programs, the children have enjoyed participating in nutrition lessons, cooking activities, and tending to the onsite edible garden. On Saturdays, they eagerly help plant, weed, and harvest fruits and vegetables in the garden. They have gained confidence, created healthy eating habits, and developed more active and positive lifestyles.

2016 Lifetime Achievement Award

Richie Fay is truly one of the good guys in our industry. He is a man of great integrity, both in his personal and professional life. His leadership is a true statement to his word and his personality. It shows in everything he does, be it his working relationships or simply the way his team works under his leadership. He has helped us grow in an industry where we often wonder who our friends really are, and for that we are truly grateful. Those of us fortunate enough to know him understand that Richie very rarely has anything on his face but a smile. I could go on for days with Richie stories, starting with the time he wore Juli's high heels while practicing his golf swing in a Dallas bar, or the time he was cooking meatballs at a Texas ranch with the sounds of Frank Sinatra and raccoons screwing between the walls in the background.

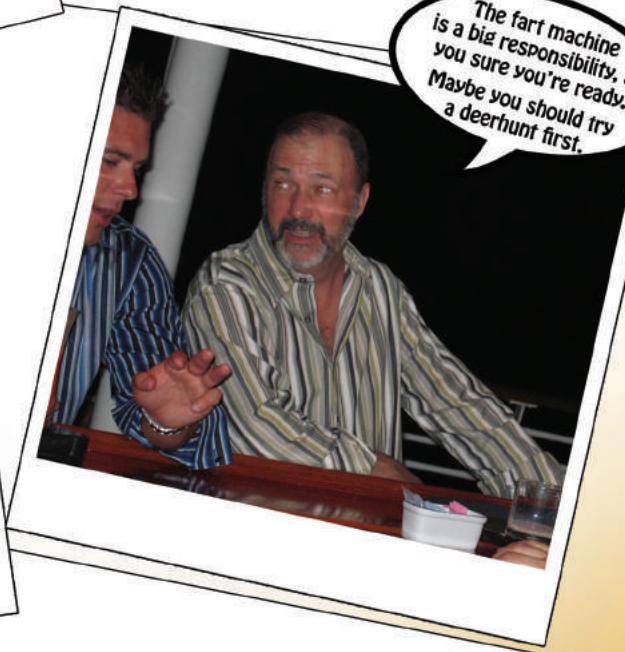

But we will never forget the two-week trip to Italy that our families shared, along with other friends from the industry which Richie and Mary put together for us all. It started with a never-ending bus ride through the country with a driver that got lost on our way to an awaiting cruise ship where we sailed the Mediterranean Sea with Richie and his fart machine. A few of the guys snuck off the boat before we set sail, and took on an adventure through the Monte Carlo Casino. We made sure to wear our best Tommy Bahama attire so that we'd blend in with the black tie crowd. Richie's solution to the dilemma was to simply "Drink more Wild Turkey, and then everything will be fine". The highlight of the trip had to be the two older ladies that always seemed to have this guy beside them no matter where we were on the boat. He'd complain about stomach issues, complete with flatulent noises coming from his backside when he pushed a button in his pocket. Those poor women ran for cover every time they saw him.

Thank you for the memories Richie, and thank you for being a friend to so many.

Your friends at ShowBiz Cinemas want to congratulate you on your Lifetime Achievement Award, and wish you all the best in the coming years.

We love you!

Dear Richie,

Congratulations on receiving the Variety 2016 Lifetime Achievement Award! Your involvement and contribution to industry charities, and Variety in particular, has been an integral part of your distinguished career spanning over four decades in both Exhibition and Distribution. Those who have had the privilege of working with you have benefitted from your experience and patient guidance.

On a personal level, I cherish my friendship with you, Mary, Mary Beth, Jeff, and our angel Kris watching over all of us. You are a wonderful husband, father, grandpa, and a caring and amazing friend.

"It couldn't happen to a nicer guy" is the epitome of this award recognizing your accomplishments. CONGRATULATIONS, Richie!!

Dear Richie,

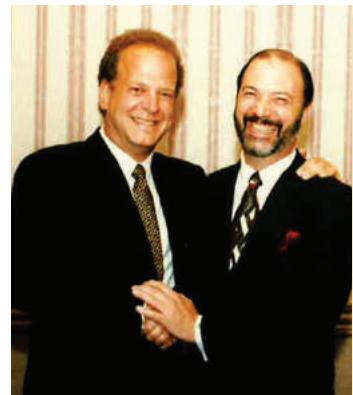

Strength, compassion, generosity, intelligence and truth are just a few of the fundamental aspects of your persona that come to my mind when reminiscing over what a phenomenal role model you have been to me for the past 25 years. To me, you are the definition of a great leader, achieving immeasurable success in the entertainment industry and more importantly, with your amazing family; conquering every hurdle that has come your way.

I will forever cherish the multitude of memories that we have developed over the years. Whether it be our travels around the world or classic dinner parties, I have grown to consider you, Mary, Mary Beth and Kristen as a second family and constant source of support and encouragement. Through some of the most difficult, confusing and frustrating times in my life, you have been there for me, providing insightful guidance and gracious mentorship that helped shape the person I am today. I admire and respect you, and appreciate everything that you have done for my mother and me.

Dear Richi,

Cathy & I would like to congratulate you for receiving the Variety Lifetime Achievement Award. You are deserving of this honor and Cathy & I are extremely proud of you!

I have unearthed some photos that were taken somewhere between 1966 & 1969 that I hope will bring back some pleasant memories of living in the Bronx.

1. Richi & I worked for several years at the Castle Hill Beach Club in the Bronx performing numerous functions including maintenance, security & pool cleaning. Here we are performing the Kiddie pool cleaning, which was a daily ritual.
2. On our down time, relaxing on the porch watching the girls go by was always enjoyable. One of those girls eventually became my wife, Cathy.
3. Here we are in the pool entertaining my cousins with our acrobatic skills. That is Archie on my shoulders.

It has been a great honor for Cathy & I to have had you & many a friend over all of these years. Looking forward to visiting with you soon.

Jim & Cathy

To my Cousin,

I am so proud of you and all you have achieved - and yet you remain the same humble, caring, humorous & loving person you have always been. Congratulations on your "Lifetime Achievement Award." I'm so glad you are recognized for what you do & who you are.

I am honored to have you as my cousin - Richard!

Uncle Richie,
You are a true role model. Your hard work & ethic combined with your love of the movie industry for all these years is admirable. You always put other people in the forefront because you have a huge heart. You are truly

Richie & Hank Lightstone

That number represents the number of years Rich and I have been the best of friends. We met in 1970 as juniors at Iona College in New Rochelle, NY. Who knew this was the beginning of a great friendship. As seniors in 1971, we both met our future wives Mary and Carol, who were entering Iona as freshman. Rich and I graduated in 1971 and the four of us have been as close as friends could be since then.

As our friendship continued to grow, the four of us had some great experiences. Many of these experiences occurred during some of our wild vacations. Our Italy trip in '76 as our tour guide Vittorio helped us find "fichi". Our car ride in St. Lucia where Rich almost drove us off a cliff and how we thankfully avoided a street carnival that Mary was insisting we go but we talked her out of it. Thank God, there were half naked drunken bodies strewn all over the small town when we got up the next morning. One of our best memories was in the Dominican where we rented a villa and our families started a conga line around the pool to the song "Hot Hot Hot. There were others that I can't go into detail but dealt with a half-naked man hitchhiking in St. Lucia, "gangi" at the diving board in Jamaica, a young boy carrying bananas and a machete, drinking "dirty bananas" in Jamaica and a very, very, very long, uncomfortable bus ride in Italy.

As this was all happening our children came along and grew up together and they always referred to us as aunt and uncle out of respect and the closeness of our families. Weddings, birth of our kids and some heartbreaking tragedies brought us closer than ever. Rich is godfather to my daughter, Lauren and I was godfather to his late daughter, Kristen. When my two brothers died Rich was there for me and I reminded him that he is the only "brother" I have left. We have celebrated each other's joys and consoled each other's tragedy's and because of this our friendship grew stronger.

Moving to the west coast did not affect anything. We still continue to visit each other as often as we can. We constantly talk movies and our get-togethers always ends up with Rich telling a raunchy joke and then sharing a bowl of pasta, a good cabernet or some fine Kentucky bourbon, his on the rocks and mine neat. Also, only a very best friend would hire a stripper dressed as a bag lady for my 30th birthday and on my 60th, hire another stripper dressed up as my favorite animal, a gorilla. Between the "gorilla" girl and the bottle of absinthe we drank, it was one crazy night. Stripper for my 30th, stripper for my 60th, can't wait for my 90th.

46 years, 2 coasts, some very special times and a great deal of sadness has not weakened our friendship, it has grown ever stronger.

It has been a great run and it will continue.

Good luck Rich,

Dennis

Congratulations Richie On Your Lifetime Achievement Award

Your family at Barco Escape thanks you for your support and celebrates all of your accomplishments throughout an extraordinary career!

When I think of Richie, my mind immediately thinks of family. Richie is not only a wonderful husband, father and grandfather, he is like a dad and brother to so many of us. Richie loves people and it reflects in all that he does in life. I feel so fortunate to be able to have him as a friend. If reincarnation does exist, I want to come back as his kid (of course, I want Mary as my Mom, too).

Congratulations, Richie, on being the recipient of this prestigious lifetime achievement award, bestowed by Variety the Children's Charity. I can't think of a better choice of someone who has a bigger heart and will always be there to help children in need.

Our Story of Pal Richie and The Hat

Richard Fay joined our family in 1975 when he married Mary Iacovacci. In 1977 when they bought their first home in Oakdale, Long Island they became our neighbors. My husband Tony DeVito and Mary are first cousins. We had 2 young children at that time, Anthony was 7 and Jennifer was 5.

My son Anthony attached himself to Richie on their first meeting. In 1975 at 5 years old he was the ring bearer at their wedding. Mary wanted him to wear cute little white shorts and knee socks. This was met by sincere and absolute refusal, as only a 5 year old can do. Enter Pal Richie, he took Anthony to the tuxedo store and had the gentlemen find the smallest tuxedo that was exactly like the rest of the Grooms men. He had him alter it to fit the tiny 5 year old who was happy as a clam. From that day forward he became known as Pal Richie.

Needless to say, we were all happy to have Mary and Richie as our new neighbors, my son was ecstatic over having Pal Richie just 3 houses away. We soon saw that Richie was like the pied piper when it came to children. At that time having no children of his own he had a magnetism that drew them to his patient, kind and fun personality. Anthony, would watch and wait for him to come home from work and would be on his door step before he got out of the car and it was hard to get him to come back home.

Our son still talks about the time Richie took him to the special Star Wars preview, and is still an avid Star Wars Fan.

There were many many times that Richie would be at our door carrying our son, who had fallen asleep while they were all watching TV together. Naturally he was wearing the hat.

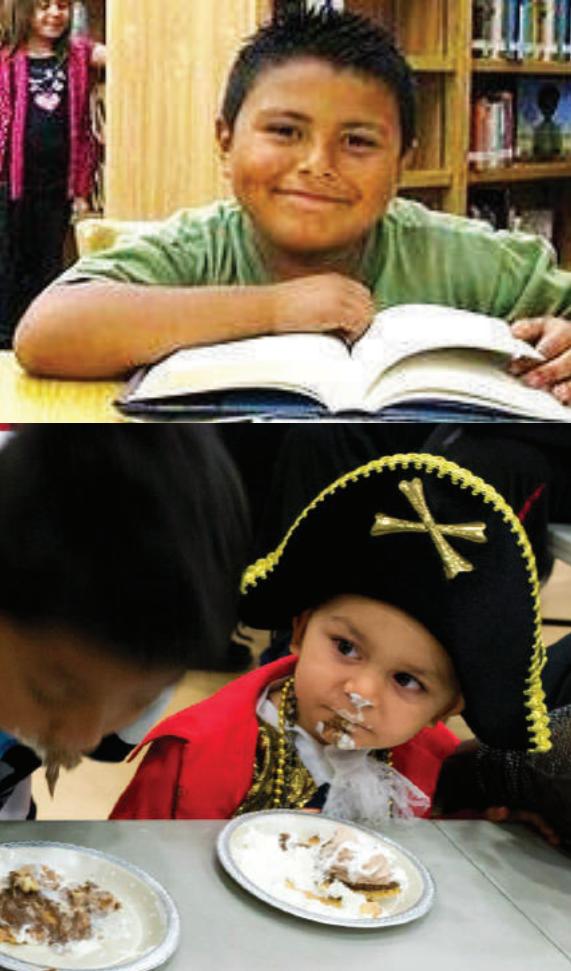

Enter the Hat, Richie had a favorite hat. This hat was a brown leather cap and had been well worn by the time we met it. Two of my son's favorite things were pockets and hats. He just loved that hat and Richie shared it with him often. It was a little big for him but not as big as you would think.

In 1978, we started plans to relocate to Southern California. This was a very difficult time for us as excited as we were to start this new adventure it meant leaving our family and friends. When it came time to leave Pal Richie who had shared so much with my son who was now 7 gave him The Hat to take with him to California. This hat was one of the most treasured items my son owned. He wore it and spoke of Pal Richie often.

My son is now 45 years old and has a son named Anthony who is 7. The Hat now resides in his room and when his dad gave it to him and he put it on (and it almost fit) my husband Tony and I had visions of our 7 year old Anthony, who loved the hat and his Pal Richie. We were neighbors for a short time but we have been family of Richie Fay since 1975. We have seen him become a wonderful father and now Grandpa to 2 grandsons. We will take good care of the hat and when his oldest grandson turns 7, I think the hat should go full circle and hope that the story will continue.

With much Love and respect,
The Tony DeVito family

Education

Variety's Education Program provides underprivileged children and at-risk youth the programs necessary to pursue their education and dreams and overcome the barriers of poverty and high levels of unemployment with literacy programs, college scholarships, college prep, and career readiness counseling.

Growing up in Boyle Heights, Eli learned at a very young age that most of the kids in his neighborhood would either succumb to gang violence or never graduate high school. 69% of adults in the Boyle Heights Community do not have a college degree and 83% of families have incomes below the federal poverty level. But Eli set out to beat those odds and wrote on his scholarship application, "I want to break the stereotypes against Latinos and demonstrate that any student across any minority group has the ability to take on great roles in society."

Eli just began his sophomore year at Princeton University on a Variety Scholarship!

Richie,

Congratulation on receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award, I cannot think of a more deserving recipient than you. You and I go back over 40 years and whether you know this or not, you were a huge role model and had a profound effect on me while I was growing up. Between the countless trade screenings, day and lunches with you in the city, camping trips up at Lake George (thanks once again for saving me from drowning and also teaching me about explosives and what they do to outhouses), hanging in Oakdale with you and Mary, white water rafting (worst sunburn of my life), fishing, boating, fence building (used as cheap child labor), wall construction and all the other many things throughout the years, a lifetime of fond memories to truly cherish. You are an amazing human being, and my life is so much better with having had you as part of it! Congratulations once again!

With my love,
Frank

Where do I even begin... I could not be prouder that my godfather, Richard Fay, is the recipient of a lifetime achievement award. I cannot think of anyone else who deserves it more than he does. Uncle Richie has been there for me for 33 years now, and I know he will always be there for me. I have been blessed with the honor of him being my godfather and there is no one else that is more selfless, loving, and comical than he is. Uncle Richie is always willing to do whatever he could for me, usually with a joke or chuckle in hand. When I asked him to do a reading at my wedding, he of course said yes. My wedding would not have been the same without him being a part of it. Throughout the years, our families have been on numerous vacations together. Without Uncle Richie there, they would not have been the same...or as fun as they were! Now that I have a little girl of my own, I look forward to the memories she will create with him.

I love you, Uncle Richie!

-Love always, Lauren

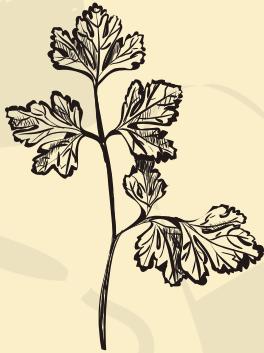

DEAR UNCLE RICHIE,

Dear Rich,

Aug. 17, 2016

My sincerest congratulations to you on your Lifetime Achievement Award. I couldn't be happier for you, and they couldn't be honoring a better person! You are the nicest, kindest, most good-hearted person I know.

You and Mary's friendship over the years has meant more to me than I can express. I will always have warm memories of our many wonderful times together. My life has truly been enriched by knowing you and your fabulous family.

Once again, congratulations on this well-deserved award.

Love, Rosemary

Richie, congratulations on receiving the 2016 Lifetime Achievement Award recognizing not only your philanthropic efforts with charities like Options for Life and Will Rogers but also your vast career achievements.

Not many in this great industry have been at the helm of a major exhibition circuit and two cutting edge studios. I have enjoyed every moment together for the past 9 years at Summit and Lionsgate. You've taught me so much about relationships, honesty, humility, and leadership and I've always admired your confidence and willingness to pass on valuable insight to your team. Long after you hang up your gloves on Mondays, your legacy will continue in all of us that you've taught along the way. I am so proud to have worked for you and to call you my friend.

With much love and respect,
Shaun

Dear Uncle Richie,

I love you SO much.
I liked when you let me help you walk your dog.
I love watching movies with you! Congratulations on your award!

Love,
Michael

Dear Uncle Richie,
Congratulations on your award. Throughout my years of my life, you have supplied many memories for me and my family. Like when you flew 3,000 miles just to surprise on Christmas. Or any time we watch a movie together, letting us watch movies that only you have. Whatever it is, you are a amazing & loving uncle.

Love,
Jonathan Iacovacci

Dear Richie,

For as long as I can remember you have been Santa Claus both in spirit and with gifts. For our kids, our neighbors, friends, relatives every year you wear the suit, make-up, glasses and fake beard to change your appearance just enough so that the kids (except for Daniel) believed that you were indeed Santa Claus. Perhaps you could use a little extra padding but your girls will never let that happen.

The fact is you could not pick a better person to be Santa, with your big generous heart and willingness to give to others expecting nothing in return. And like Santa, you work to join families and friends together by either hosting a gathering or going out of your way to attend one. Congratulations on your lifetime achievement award and a big HO! HO! HO! from all of us.

Love John, Elisa, Jonathan and Michael

Family. Compassion. Loyalty. Integrity. Self-effacing. Friends are like family. Comedic. Dogs are family.

These are just some of the words I would choose if someone asked me to describe Richie.

I was born an only child to a very modest family in New York. Coming from an Italian family, we did what Italian families from New York did, spend as much time together as we could. What resulted was a relationship with my cousins who were, are and will forever remain my sister and brother in every sense of that familial bond.

Some years later, my cousin/sister Mary met this guy named Richie. And I met a woman named Gina. They married first, and then we followed, and as the fable goes, we all lived happily ever after! And Gina and I gained a brother. A true brother. Lucky us. Through formative years, through great and tough times, he was and always has been someone to whom we could turn for anything, importantly some sage wisdom and advice. And, as the years went by, he set an example of what family and compassion meant. Yes, career success was a goal, and we both got there. But that really didn't matter. The true measure of a man is not wealth or toys, but showing what is really important in life. Not just by words, but more importantly by deeds. By this yardstick, he is a giant.

When my youngest son had to pick a "Godfather" for his confirmation, he picked Richie. I asked him why and he said Uncle Richie was really handsome and kind-hearted. I told him that a .500 batting average was the best anyone could do..

Unfortunately, within too much of a short time, Richie and Mary and Gina and I joined a club to which no parent wants to be admitted. We lost our Mikey and their Squirt. I raise this not to be Danny Downer, but to applaud Richie's resolve and compassion afterward. Along with his family, he turned the most horrible tragedies into heartfelt help for others through a foundation, giving them something that has made a difference in many lives thus far, and hopefully many more to come. The giant.

It is a privilege for Gina and me to share these thoughts. Congratulations, Rich, on a well-deserved award.

Richie, we love you dearly.
Gina and Dan

Hey my Brother,

So I hear your industry has found it in their hearts to give you yet another award!
I'm sure you are very deserving of it because you have told me so yourself. Some people may say that if you can hang around long enough it becomes almost an obligation for you to receive something, I guess its your turn! After all you do live in LA (LAND of AWARDS). I remember a few years ago you received a humanitarian award this to a man who likes dogs more than he likes people! Well my friend years ago when you decided to leave for Cali it was ~~LA's~~ NY's New York's loss and LA's gain.

It's a strange thing that you had to move across the country for us to actually meet.

I remember meeting you in your beautiful Calabasas home. You said hi I'm Rich and I thought to myself look at this guy he doesn't even know me & he's bragging already!

Who knew that day I was to meet someone that I have come to call my brother! Richie something just clicked from that day you and your family opened your home: your hearts to me hym & our boys. It has been a love just ever since! Who knows what brings people together? But for whatever it is I AM THANKFUL!

You all made it so very hard for me to come back to N.Y. and Richie I swear if Wayne would have had 1 more drink we may have had that Italian Restaurant we always dreamed about!

RPRISE HAMA ACATION What a memorable night but You probably don't remember too much of it since you passed out in the car! Rich our families have shared so many & GREAT Times since then, ITALY Best VACATION EVER!! Drunken Napa Valley Vacation, Christmas Holidays all Great Family Times. Some Of Our Best Days Were With The FAYS

We have also shared some heart breaking times. and during those times we have become FAMILY.

I'm so glad to have known Kristen I will always remember her with that beautiful smile, that sparkle in her eye and her effervescent personality! She could brighten a room just by walking into it & if that didn't get your attention then that single Kristen burp ^{sister} shocked! We ALL miss your LITTLE SOVIET we keep her in our hearts & think of her often!

I know we will forever be in each others lives and now we look forward to watching our grandchildren grow. You are now blessed with 2 beautiful grandsons, Hoy did I mention I have 2 beautiful granddaughters? OMG wouldn't that be something!! Hey You Never Know!

So Richie Congratulations on an award you have spent a lifetime earning! I know the respect & admiration that your industry holds for you. Your dedication to both your craft and to your people has brought you to where you are right now. Enjoy the moment your moment you deserve it!! not only for what you have accomplished but for the person You are!
With Much love My Brother

THE TROTAS LOVE YOU!!

Dearest Richie,

When the Fay family first came into our lives, it was through our daughters, who shared a first grade class. Who could have known that three decades later, we would still be friends (more like family) with so many incredible shared memories? Few can list a lifetime achievement award among their accolades; it is such a tremendous honor, and a true testament to the lasting impact you have left on your industry and the people whose lives you have touched over the years. Yet I (like anyone who knows you) still believe that your greatest achievement is the man that you are to your family and friends.

One of the first things that struck me about you when we first met was how your family took precedence above all else in your life. No matter how successful you became, it never affected the man, husband and father you were. It is clear to anyone who knows that your life revolved around Mary, Mary Beth, Kristin and those you loved most. You were always a hands-on dad, doing whatever it took to put a smile on your girl's faces. I remember all of those basketball challenges between you and Kristin, and how you glowed just teasing her and seeing her reaction. And Mary Beth always had the best parties, themed after something going on in the industry. Mary was an event planner before the term was ever coined. Reminiscing about all the times we watched the girls playing or planning their social activities while Kristen and Richie entertained themselves with cards, games and jokes -- still warms my heart.

Time passed and our friendship strengthened in the face of sorrow and life's many challenges. We mourned together and then celebrated the blessing of grandchildren, a gift to us, given in the midst of so much pain. I see you with Mary Beth and the boys and that glow that had begun to fade has resurfaced. Mary Beth will continue the Fay legacy and her boys and future children will understand, as she and Kristen did, that although they are privileged in many ways, family comes first and integrity and honor are the bedrocks on which we live our lives. So on this day, even though we celebrate your lifetime achievement award for your many accomplishments in the film industry, I hope you'll remember that to your friends and family, your lifetime achievement is your legacy as a man, husband, father, grandfather, and friend.

Congratulations, Richie!

We love you,
Debbie, Diandra, Brian, Richie, Dana & the grandchildren
(Michael, Arya-Lyn and Johnny)

Mobility

Variety's Mobility Program provides confidence, freedom, and much-needed therapeutic exercise to children with disabilities by providing specially-designed adaptive bikes, strollers, and other mobility equipment.

No child should miss out on opportunities simply because they lack the necessary transportation. Variety "Sunshine Coaches" take kids to field trips, camps, and therapy.

"Evan's therapist took him outside to ride his trike the other day and during that time my grandma called. Because she couldn't hear Evan in the background, she asked where he was. I answered, 'He's outside riding his tricycle.' After that we both paused, and I almost started crying, because it was the very first time in his life I got to say that my son was doing something that a typical kid his age would be doing."
